Product code 41240 · Fire alarm systems > Control equipment

Licence that enables the Panasonic EBLNet applications, EBL Graphics and EBL WEBMonitor. Required when installing a new 5088 gateway.

- Enables use of the EBL Graphics software
- Enables EBL WEBMonitor browser-based monitoring
- Unlocks EBLNet applications and OPC UA-based applications
- For installing a new 5088 gateway

Product description

The Panasonic 5097 EBLNet licence enables the EBLNet applications of the Panasonic fire alarm system. The licence allows use of the EBL Graphics software, the EBL WEBMonitor monitoring application and OPC UA-based applications.

The licence is intended for the installation of a new gateway (Gateway 5088). The EBLNet applications receive data from the fire alarm system via the gateway, and the licence determines which applications are available.

Applications

- graphical presentation of the fire alarm system with the EBL Graphics software
- system monitoring with EBL WEBMonitor
- data transfer to other systems with OPC UA-based applications
- other EBLNet applications

Compatibility

The manufacturer's product data lists the gateway 5088 and the applications EBL Graphics and EBL WEBMonitor as related products for the licence. The gateway and applications are purchased separately. Check the version requirements for the applications and panel software in the documentation of those products before purchase.
